

About this guidance

Overview

The purpose of this supplementary guidance is to:

- explain how schools with a religious character will be inspected under section 50 and section 28 and distinguish the differences in responsibility between both inspections
- provide inspectors with background information about schools with a religious character